Map booklet of the Cleveland Way national trail, a fine 177km (110 mile) walk around the North York Moors National Park.

The booklet of Ordnance Survey 1:25,000 Explorer maps has been designed for convenient use on the trail. It shows the full and up-to-date line of the national trail, along with the relevant extract from the OS Explorer map legend. It can be used when walking the route in either direction.

Conveniently sized for slipping into a jacket pocket or into the top of a rucksack, it comes in a clear PVC sleeve and provides all of the mapping you need to complete the route.

An accompanying Cicerone guidebook – The Cleveland Way and the Yorkshire Wolds Way / 9781852848231 – describes the full route in detail, as well as including the Yorkshire Wolds Way National Trail and the Tabular Hills link route. The guide includes lots of other practical planning and background information, for those who prefer a written guide. NOTE: The accompanying guidebook includes a copy of this map booklet.

Key marketing points

- Convenient map booklet covering the entire Cleveland Way national trail
- Useful for additional mapping when walking the trail in groups

About the author

Paddy Dillon is a prolific outdoor writer with over 70 guidebooks to his name, and contributions to 30 other publications. He has written for a variety of outdoor magazines, as well as many booklets and brochures for tourism organisations.
