Map of the South Downs Way National Trail, a 100 mile (160km) waymarked route between Winchester and Eastbourne through the South Downs National Park. With easy walking on ancient trackways, the route features wooded areas, river valleys and attractive villages and is rich in natural, geological and historical interest. It was the first National Trail to be developed as a bridleway along its entire length, although the bridleway and footpath routes diverge in a few places.

This booklet of Ordnance Survey 1:25,000 Explorer maps has been designed for convenient use on the trail. It shows the full and up-to-date line of the National Trail (including the bridleway alternatives), along with the relevant extract from the OS Explorer map legend. It can be used when walking the trail in either direction, east-west or west-east. Conveniently sized for slipping into a jacket pocket or top of a rucksack, it comes in a clear PVC sleeve and provides all of the mapping you need to complete the trail.

An accompanying Cicerone guidebook – The South Downs Way / 9781852849405 – describes the full route in both directions with lots of other practical and historical information, for those who prefer a written guide. NOTE: The accompanying guidebook includes a copy of this map booklet.

About the author

Kev Reynolds is a freelance writer, photojournalist and lecturer. A prolific compiler of guidebooks, his first title for Cicerone Press (Walks & Climbs in the Pyrenees) appeared in 1978; he has since produced many more titles for the same publisher, with others in the pipeline. His passion for mountains and the countryside remains undiminished after a lifetime's activity, and he regularly travels throughout Britain to share that enthusiasm through his lectures.
