This guidebook offers 25 day walks exploring the mountains and coastline of Corsica. The walks are divided into 6 geographical sections and range from 4km to 19km, offering varied walking on all parts of the island. Bases include the mountain town of Corte and coastal towns of Ajaccio and Bonifacio, as well as plenty of Corsican villages and mountain refuges.

This guidebook is intended to give a taste of the many delights on offer for walkers on this spectacular island. Offering paths through rugged mountain ranges, ancient forests, green pastures, and sandy beaches, Corsica is an unparalleled paradise for walkers. There are also plenty of opportunity for swimming, with crystal-clear rivers and turquoise coves dotted along these day walks.

Each walk offers clear mapping to aid navigation alongside route description interspersed with insights into local plants, wildlife, geology, and history. The introduction provides plenty of information about when to go, how to get there, and accommodation available on the island. Also included is a route summary table to aid planning and a French/Corse–English glossary.

Key marketing points

- The trails explore both the remote areas of this beautiful island and the more well-known parts.

About the author

Gillian Price has trekked throughout Asia and the Himalayas, but now lives in Venice. Gillian has steadily explored the mountain ranges of Italy, and Corsica, and brought them to life for visitors in a series of outstanding guides for Cicerone.
