This guide covers the 200km long Camiño dos Faros (the Way of the Lighthouses), an eight day hike along the coast of Galicia in north-west Spain. The stages are 18-29km per day with nights spent in often excellent accommodation. Highlights include stunning clifftop walking, quiet fishing villages, easy access, delicious seafood and a Michelin-starred restaurant directly on the route!

The Galician coast is an unspoilt, and often wild, region, offering visiting walkers a chance to get to know a unique and authentic part of Spain, far from the crowded beaches of the Mediterranean. A well-waymarked and established trail allows walkers take in the beautiful scenery and absorb the interesting history and culture scenes along the way.

The guide gives details of accommodation, public transport, shortcuts and route planning. High-quality maps accompany each stage, along with inspiring photographs and detailed route descriptions.

About the author

John Hayes is a retired management consultant with degrees from Liverpool University and University College London. Immediately after finishing work in 2011 he embarked on an epic 5,000km trek across Europe, walking from Tarifa in Spain to Budapest. John has walked the Camiño dos Faros in Spain twice, in April 2016 (with Christine his wife) and in June 2017. He is currently working on his first cycling guide - the Ruta Via de la Plata.
