With 30 low level walks that are suitable for all abilities, this guidebook helps walkers explore the northern part of Snowdonia National Park. Areas include the north coast, Conwy valley, Betws y Coed, Snowdon, Ogwen, Llanberis and the Vale of Ffestiniog (including Portmadog).

Human history is everywhere, with neolithic settlements and Roman ruins standing beside the medieval castles of Welsh Princesses and the modern remnants of the mining industry. Myths and legends abound, and many walks relate to the stories of King Arthur and Merlin, Anafanc and Welsh fairies.

All the routes are accompanied by OS maps, and contain clear route descriptions as well as identifying points of historical, cultural or geological interest. The walks lead to ancient woodland, mountain streams, sparkling lakes, sandy beaches, heather moodland and some small peaks.

Key marketing points

- Routes cover the very best low-level walking in the northern part of Snowdonia National Park
- A second book covering the south will be published in spring 2020

About the author

Alex Kendall is a mountain leader, working in summer and winter throughout the UK and abroad, leading groups on day walks, challenges and long distance journeys. He enjoys getting people into the outdoors, especially through supervising Duke of Edinburgh's Award expeditions and running weekend walking trips for adults. He has been walking in Snowdonia for over 10 years having been introduced to these mountains as a student.
